Who in the Halls Can Help?
The CA/CPA Staff - The Community Assistant/Community Programming Assistants are full-time upperclass students who are employed by the Department of Student Life. The staff is available to answer questions, foster a unique sense of community within the residence halls, be a referral person, conduct meetings, and uphold university policies and procedures. When discussing personal matters, the staff practice confidentiality. The staff is also there to assist in organizing events that bring residents together, such as floor dinners, game nights, ice cream socials, and much more! The Staff is in a position to help you build a community based on individual responsibility and respect for others.

The ADs - The Assistant Directors are full-time professional staff members who live in a residence hall. The AD is responsible for the overall management of a residential area, including programming, hall cooperative advising, and policy interpretation and enforcement.

The Hall Cooperative - Each residence hall has a Hall Cooperative. Residents elect an executive board. Hall cooperatives work with hall staff to plan educational, recreational, social and cultural programs for the residents, and serve as a voice for the residents to address residential or community concerns that might arise.

Hall Cooperatives assist with the dispersing of information to students in the hall, evaluate the needs of hall residents, and are influential in giving input to bring about changes in the residence halls. Talk to a CA or CPA about becoming a CRC Member!

Leadership Opportunities
Getting involved with the Residence Hall Cooperative is a great opportunity for you to develop leadership skills, such as: group process, budget management, presentation, marketing, and communication. Hall Cooperative offers valuable community building activities for residents and has funds for presenting programs in the residence hall and purchasing equipment (such as lounge tv’s and games) for student use. As a student leader you can develop these skills while being actively involved with others...join your Residence Hall Cooperative. See your CA or CPA for more information.

THE LEARNING ASSISTANCE CENTER 778-7295
252 Main Street-Franklin Hall
8:00 a.m. - 4:30 p.m. Monday-Friday
http://learnassist.umf.maine.edu/tutoring/php

TUTORING
The Learning Assistance Center provides free tutoring for virtually all UMF courses. To request tutors, students must first visit the Center to fill out a tutor-request application. Tutors are hired upon faculty recommendation and will meet weekly with students individually or in small groups to provide assistance with coursework. Our data shows that students who meet regularly with their tutors find the most success in their courses.

SUPPLEMENTAL INSTRUCTION
http://si.umf.maine.edu/
In addition to one-on-one tutoring, the Learning Assistance Center provides Supplemental Instruction(SI) for many historically difficult UMF courses. SI is a series of weekly study sessions for students who want to improve their understanding of course material and improve their grades. SI leaders attend class, take notes, complete homework, and organize two study sessions per week. These sessions begin the second week of classes and continue through the end of the semester. Your instructors will announce whether your course is linked with SI. Times and locations of study sessions will be announced at every class and can also be accessed through visiting the SI website. Students who attend SI regularly earn better grades. Visit the Learning Assistance Office in Franklin Hall.
The Math Clinic supports students in all aspects of their mathematics courses through our free tutoring services. Whether it is understanding class notes, doing homework assignments, preparing for quizzes and tests, or getting ready for PRAXIS and GRE exams - we are here to assist. We recommend that tutoring sessions start early in the semester and continue on a regular basis.

The Clinic tutors are UMF students who have earned an A or a B in one or more UMF mathematics courses and have been recommended by the mathematics faculty as being knowledgeable in the courses. Our staff provides a comfortable, friendly, and supportive atmosphere for learning and succeeding in math.

In addition to course work, the Clinic provides guidelines, materials, and tutoring for PRAXIS and GRE preparation. Just as with class assignments, practicing PRAXIS and GRE material over an extended period of time is most beneficial.

Students are encouraged to sign up in advance for appointments whenever possible. This allows us to employ enough tutors to provide you with the best possible service. Bring your notes, textbook, calculator, assignment, and a sense of humor to each tutoring session.

The Writing Center

Writers of all levels, in all subjects, come to The Writing Center to find readers/responders. We also help with studying for Praxis™ tests, looking up citation styles, and guiding students to resources. Our student tutors (our most valuable resource) are chosen on the basis of faculty recommendations, writing samples, interviews, and mock tutoring sessions. Outside the center, we offer the fall Weekly Grammar Workshops series, customized programming for faculty members and campus organizations, and an online tutorial that helps students learn to avoid plagiarism.

The Financial Aid Office in the Merrill Center serves all students who need assistance financing their education. They recommend that all students apply for financial aid by completing the FAFSA (Free Application for Federal Student Aid) each year they are attending. This office sends out award letters to students and also processes many types of student loans.

If you have not already done so, you can apply for financial aid for the 2013-2014 academic year by filing the FAFSA online at www.fafsa.gov. Students who meet the March 1st priority deadline are considered for all available resources and students who file after this deadline are considered for remaining funds. Check with the Financial Aid Office if you have not filed and want to know about aid availability.

For the 2013-2014 academic year, students will need to complete a FAFSA or Renewal FAFSA online after January 1, 2013. You can do the Renewal FAFSA if you filed a FAFSA in 13-14, and will need your PIN to access the renewal information.
UMF Academic Scholarship applications are expected to be available for the 2013-2014 year online on mycampus.umf@maine.edu in November 2013. The deadline date is expected to be January 31, 2014.
