

Summer Break Housing Guidelines

The summer residence hall is designed to provide a safe and comfortable living and learning environment where students are among a community of peers. The University assumes that residents know what is right and what is wrong, what is responsible behavior and what is not responsible behavior. As members of this community, residents share the responsibility for what happens in the residence hall. Violations of any residence hall policy may result in restrictions or jeopardize your summer housing status. All University and residence hall policies are in effect during summer housing as well as the guidelines provided in the summer housing agreement. Each resident is expected to be familiar with all policies and regulations.

1. Quiet Hours

- Quiet hours for the summer hall are 10 p.m. – 9 a.m.
- Consideration and courtesy is expected at all times.

2. Guests

- Guests are welcome during the summer months and must be visiting a particular resident of Stone Hall. Guests may stay overnight if you have your roommate's consent and they are signed in on a guest slip at the lobby office. Guests may stay up to three consecutive nights per week and no more than nine nights for the whole summer. As always, a resident is responsible for their guests' behavior

3. Kitchen

- The kitchen is provided as a convenience. It is your responsibility to clean up after yourself. Remember that several residents will be using the kitchen over the summer, so be considerate and leave the kitchen in a clean condition when you finish. Sodexo is closed during Summer break; therefore, residents are responsible for buying and cooking their own food during break periods.

4. Checking In

- When checking in you will need to complete a room condition form and an emergency contact form with a staff member.

5. Checking Out

- Contact a hall staff member 48 hours before you plan to check-out to make an appointment.
- When checking out make sure your room is in the same or better condition than it was when you moved in.
- Make sure you have packed and moved out all of your belongings.
- Make sure you have swept and dusted your room.
- Find a staff member to check-out with, complete the check-out paperwork and turn in your room key.

6. Failure to check-out of your room with a hall staff member will result in a $25 improper check-out charge.

7. Lost room keys will result in a billing of $25

8. Lost temporary access proxy cards will result in a billing of $25.

9. Rooms left in poor condition that require cleaning or repair will be billed for the cost of labor and repairs to the room.
