Other Notes of General Interest

- Class schedules may be viewed in your Student Center on MaineStreet.
- To look up prices and order your textbooks, visit http://bookstore.umf.maine.edu and enter course information. A listing of Spring 2014 textbooks is expected to be available by the middle of December. The UMF University Store will also be open on move-in day, 8:00am – 4:30pm.
- For loan credit refunds, all appropriate loan requirements must be satisfied in order for the refund check to be issued. You may check the status of your account on MaineStreet. Subsequent refunds will be issued on a weekly basis and available for pick-up in the Merrill Center.
- Checks or money orders should be made payable to the “University of Maine Farmington”.
- If you are eligible for a refund, it will be mailed to your Mailing Address the week before spring 2014 classes start. Any returned refund checks will be available for pickup in the Merrill Center once classes begin. You may qualify for a refund if your total financial aid or payments for the spring semester exceed your student charges.
- Meal plan changes for on-campus, resident students may be made in the Merrill Center Office after the Spring Semester begins. No further changes may be made (except adding points) to meal plans for on-campus residents for Spring 2014 after Monday, February 3rd, at 4:00 p.m.
- You may file your 2014-2015 FAFSA as early as January 1, 2014. UMF priority deadline date is March 1, 2014

The on-line Academic Scholarship Application for 2014-2015 is now available to returning UMF students on myCampus, under Tools, select Scholarship Application. You may make as many updates and revisions as needed up through the deadline date of January 31, 2014.

Submit your FAFSA and your income taxes early.
Complete the 2014-2015 FAFSA as soon as possible on or after January 1, 2014.
The Federal Processor must receive your FAFSA by March 1, 2014 to meet UMF’s priority filing deadline.
